Many years ago I owned a retail establishment on an Army installation in Georgia. One year many of the troops there had been deployed to Egypt for an extended training exercise. When they delivered many of them have been asking me for a fragrance called Secret of the Desert. Their claim was that when they employed this scent it actually caused women to become receptive in order to sexual intercourse. There were so many who said that they had used this fragrance and that it had actually worked for them in which I determined that it was worth looking into.

When i do some research I came across this fragrance listed as one of the scented oil scents sold by Egyptian vendors. The particular fragrance that has been referred to as Secret of the Desert was none other than their version of Channel #5. The particular hype has been created by the vendors in order to make much more sales to the gullible soldiers and also the Egyptians utilized sex as a selling application. In light of this I would advise you to be wary of any scented product which promises that it will cause the opposite sex to be attracted to you. Perfume Oil Express.
